HUUSBEIZ

We had a splendid evening at Huusbeiz and the cucumber starter had us convinced from the get go. Not only did the gin and cucumber sorbet served on a cold cucumber peel look great, it was also a great pairing. For the main course we tried the pork belly plated over a variety of beans and green apples. The pork was crispy, a little sweet and bursting with flavour and we finished our meal with a superb chocolate mousse. We like the nose to tail approach of the kitchen crew, but at Huusbeiz it's not just the food that's great. Host Nicolas and the wait staff offered impeccable service and the atmosphere is down to earth, just the way we like it. ▶ A-11, Badernerstrasse 310,  Zypressenstrasse, tel.
